

Hume Moreland Child FIRST Intake Worker

- Work with families to provide a coordinated community based entry point into registered child and family service agencies based in Broadmeadows
- Full time contract position available to 30 June 2019
- Full time contract position available to June 2020
- Salary packaging, competitive sector remuneration and fantastic benefits offered

About Uniting

At Uniting we are passionate about working together to inspire people, enliven communities and confront injustice.

We are proud to have been part of local communities for over 100 years delivering services across Victoria and Tasmania. With a team of 7,000 skilled and committed individuals we provide over 770 programs and services to people of all ages to learn, thrive and enjoy a healthy, happy life. We're there for children, families, people with disability, older people and those experiencing homelessness, mental illness or drug and alcohol addiction.

Uniting is looking for great people who, like us, celebrate diversity and welcome everyone regardless of ethnicity, faith, sexual orientation and gender identity.

Learn more

vt.uniting.org

About the Opportunity

We have an exciting opportunity for a Child FIRST Intake Worker to join our Child and Family Services team

Hume Moreland Integrated Family Services Alliance is a partnership of Community Service Organisations, Community Health Services, local councils and the Department of Health and Human Services who work together to ensure strength-based and appropriate service responses for vulnerable children, young people and families, living in the local municipalities of Hume and Moreland.

Hume-Moreland Child FIRST is the community based intake into integrated family services, responding to families, referrers, community networks and professionals.

About you

We would love to hear from you if you have:

- Bachelor of Social Work or Diploma of Community Welfare Work and excellent communication and casework skills
- Knowledge and understanding of intake, assessment and response and sound understanding of strengths based approach to service delivery

- Demonstrated experience in working with vulnerable children and families with complex and multiple needs including ability to engage and assess client needs and undertake risk assessments
- Child Protection experience and/or Intake experience with vulnerable children and families, including those who have experienced family violence, is highly desirable

How to apply

If this sounds like you and you would like more information, go to vt.uniting.org for a copy of the Position Description. When applying, please include a one page cover letter outlining your suitability and attach a current resume of no more than 3 pages. Contact hr@kildonan.org.au for the Key Selection Criteria document you will also need to respond to.

Please send your application to Shazeena McDonald, Email: hr@kildonan.org.au

Applications close: Friday 11 January 2019, 12pm noon.

- Get in touch
- E: hr@kildonan.org.au
- T: 9302 600 to speak with Valerie Ayres-Wearne or email vayres-wearne@vt.uniting.org

Uniting is a child safe organisation and is committed in everyday practice to ensure the safety and wellbeing of all children, at all times. As a 'child safe' organisation, employment with Uniting is subject to a satisfactory national (and international where relevant) police check and Working With Children Check (in Victoria) and/or Working With Vulnerable People Check (in Tasmania) prior to commencement of any paid or unpaid work and/or participation in any service or undertaking.